Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Join us to celebrate the soul of France’s southwestern region on a seven-night journey. A seven-night rail-homed tour and cobbled lanes, AHI serves as your base for enriching countryside excursions and visits to glorious towns.

A world of wonders awaits in this irresistible region, including masterpieces by Toulouse-Lautrec, spotlighting castle and medieval fortresses, plus a revolutionary 17th-century waterway. We’ll meet gracious locals in their family farms and visit Toulouse, discovering the allure of the city’s pink stone landmarks. Witness the unique, fifteenth-century houses of Carcassonne, venture to Carcassonne, Europe’s largest fortress, and cruise through history along the Canal du Midi. From the palpable effervescence of Hôtel Cordes-sur-Ciel to the delightful flavors of Gaillac wine and regional cuisine, this captivating journey will leave you with inimitable memories.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during free time, feel the freedom of making your own discovered Space on this exclusive journey to Toulouse and the trip is sure to sell out quickly, so make your reservations today!

Day 1 | Toulouse
Depart your gateway city for Toulouse, France.

Day 2 | Toulouse
Depart your gateway city for Toulouse, France. Arrive, meet your traveling companions and get settled in your hotel. Optional Excursion: Cruise along the Tarn River. Enjoy the picturesque scenery as you pass through picturesque countryside, with views of vineyards, farms, and charming villages. Day 3 | Carcassonne
Depart Toulouse and travel to Carcassonne, a charming medieval town located in the Languedoc-Roussillon region. Discover the city’s rich history, from its Roman origins to its medieval stronghold.

Day 4 | Toulouse
Discover the Parisian charm of Toulouse. Visit the Musée Ingres, a tribute to the work of the great artist at the Musée Ingres. This museum hosts one of the world’s largest collections of art by Albi native Henri-Jean Ingres. Next, visit the Église de la Ste Cécile, which dominates the city center. Built between 1100 and 1210, this church is a marvel of Romanesque architecture.

Day 5 | Carcassonne
Embark on a traditional flat-bottomed wooden boat, for a cruise along the Tarn River. Revel in the vastness of Cathédrale Sainte-Cécile in Albi, a remarkable collection of Gothic architecture. Discover Albi on a walking tour, followed by a visit to the Musée Toulouse-Lautrec. Step inside the Berbie Palace to visit the largest collection of art by Albi native Henri-Jean Ingres.

Day 6 | Castres
Visit the Basilica Saint-Sernin, Europe’s largest cathedral. Ideally located along the Canal du Midi, this stunning basilica features a magnificent façade and a cylindrical nave. Enjoy a delightful village in the Midi-Pyrénées Countryside. Cordes-sur-Ciel in the Midi-Pyrénées Countryside boasts the most extraordinary medieval village in France (Saint Sernin Basilica) selected as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Day 7 | Toulouse
Day 8 | Carcassonne
This program is for avid travelers who prefer to walk at their own pace. This walking tour will take you through the heart of Carcassonne’s historic center, including the Saint-Nazaire Basilica, home to a variety of stained-glass windows. Walk through the town. Begin at the Place du Capitole, a delightful village with a harmonious vision of rosy hues throughout the town. Many of the city’s façades are constructed of red brick, creating a delightful, dry white ambiance. Continue through France’s oldest canal on a leisurely cruise. Marvel at the colorful houses perched on the cliff above the Cérou valley below. Walk through this charming village to view the skyline of Albi.

Day 9 | Toulouse
Place Nationale, Montauban
Get ready for an exciting farewell dinner and toast your French adventure tonight. You may wish to search for treasures and souvenirs to bring home with you-

Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Join us to celebrate the soul of France’s southwest region on a seven-night journey. A warren of half-timbered homes and cobbled lanes, Albi serves as your base for enriching, countryside excursions and visits to glorious towns. A world of wonders awaits in this irresistible region, including masterpieces by Caravaggio and Van Eyck, 17th-century waterways, and the city’s pink stone landmarks. Witness the unique, cantilevered houses of Castres, ventures into Carcassonne, Europe’s largest fortress, and cruise through history along the Canal du Midi. From the palpitating effervescence of Toulouse’s Rose-City to the delightful flavors of Gaillac wine and regional cuisine, this captivating journey will leave you with inimitable memories.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during free time, feel free of making your own discovered Space on this exclusive trip. It’s your trip to run or walk to, so make your reservations today!

Sincerely,

Marguerite L. Jones, AAS ’74, Bus ’88

Dear Johns Hopkins Alumni and Friends,

Join us to celebrate the soul of France’s southwest region on a seven-night journey. A haven of tranquil homes and cobblestone alleys, Albi serves as your base for enriching countryside excursions and visits to glorious towns.

A world of wonders awaits in this irresistible region, including masterpieces by Caravaggio and Toulouse-Lautrec, spectacular sites and medieval fortresses, plus a revolutionary 17th-century waterway. We’ll meet gracious locals on their family farms and visit Toulouse, discovering the allure of the city’s pink stone landmarks. Witness the unique, fortified houses of Carcassonne, Europe’s largest fortress, and cruise through history along the Canal du Midi. From the palatable effervescence of Candes-sur-Cézil to the delightful flavors of Gaillac wine and regional cuisine, this captivating journey will leave you with indelible memories.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during free time, feel the thrill of making your own discoveries! Space on this exclusive journey is limited, and the trip is sure to sell out quickly, so make your reservations today!

Sincerely,
