Dear Alumni & Friends:

Cruise the ancient trade routes of Phoenician, Roman and Moorish mariners aboard the Five-Star small ship M.S. LE LYRIAL on this comprehensive itinerary to the coastal jewels of the Iberian Peninsula.

The exclusively chartered M.S. LE LYRIAL exemplifies the advantages of Five-Star, small-ship cruising: elegant accommodations, an exclusive itinerary carefully crafted with a specially arranged excursion in each port, the ability to dock in small ports of call inaccessible to larger vessels, and no long lines for tenders and touring. This state-of-the-art small ship features only 110 Suites and Staterooms with distinctive French sophistication, so you can travel in style during the unique opportunity to cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain's legendary Guadalquivir River.

En route from Barcelona to Lisbon, admire four UNESCO World Heritage sites and experience Portugal's lesser-traveled Algarve region. Call on the enchanting Balearic Island of Mallorca and visit its vibrant capital city, Palma de Mallorca. Explore the colorful, historic city of Valencia and walk through its spectacular La Lonja de la Seda, the city's UNESCO World Heritage-designated 15th-century former Silk Exchange. Visit the regal city of Granada and tour the magnificent Alhambra Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Stand on Gibraltar's "Top of the Rock" to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Experience the spectacular sights that inspired works of art by Gaudí and Picasso, and enjoy the lively beat of flamenco. Onboard lectures will enhance your journey with the history, legends and contemporary life in these beautiful cities and villages.

Join your fellow alumni for this exclusive itinerary which sells out quickly each year. I encourage you to reserve now while space is still available!

Flourishing Cultures along Iberia's Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery are showcased on this voyage to the fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain incredible artistic and architectural treasures from centuries past. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans, as well as the diverse Moorish, Jewish and Christian cultures, ushered in great advances in mathematics, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and talent was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. These voyages brought back riches to Iberia, which created great wealth amidst the unique mélange of cultures, giving rise to the art, architecture and distinctly Mediterranean tradition of savoring life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages you will experience.

Barcelona, Spain

The lively quarters of Barcelona's beautiful Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic treasures of Antoni Gaudí, Pablo Picasso and Salvador Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands

Enjoy a scenic drive past the almond tree groves that are emblematic of Palma to the beautiful estate of Son Marroig, a medieval mansion with expansive gardens and amazing panoramic views of azure Mediterranean waters.

Cover photo: Stroll over the blue, white and yellow tiled bridges in Seville's Plaza de España to see the intricately painted tile alcoves displaying stories about the provinces of Spain.

Walk through its outer precincts, admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within, then stroll through the beautifully landscaped Generalife Gardens. Enjoy lunch in a local restaurant.

The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, the Rock of Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules that marked the boundary of the known world;

View the UNESCO World Heritage-designated terraced farms and water mills of Serra de Tramuntana en route to the traditional village of Valldemossa where you will visit the famous Carthusian Monastery, a former residence of composer Frédéric Chopin. Here, see one of the composer's pianos and enjoy a recital of his masterpieces played by a local musician. In Palma, visit the famous Gothic 14th-century Bellver Castle, one of the few concentric castles in Europe, rising 450 feet above the city. Tour the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, constructed over the course of 300 years starting in 1230 and representing the height of Catalan Gothic-style architecture.

Valencia

Located on the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast) of Spain, the sun-kissed city of Valencia was founded as a Roman colony in 138 B.C. amidst a fertile plain of orange groves. The walking tour along the historic cobblestone streets of its colorful city center features visits to the UNESCO World Heritage-designated La Lonja de la Seda (Silk Exchange), a masterpiece of splendid Gothic architecture built in the 15th century, and the elaborate 13th-century Valencia Cathedral and its impressive 167-foot-tall Miguelete Bell Tower. See the bustling Plaza de la Reina, one of Valencia's main city squares.

Granada, Andalusia

Granada is scenically located atop three hills framed by the dramatic backdrop of the snow-clad Sierra Nevada mountains.

First settled by the Moors in A.D. 711, Gibraltar lies in the shadow of the landmark Rock that shares its name and has been a British territory since 1713, when it was ceded by Spain.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain

Be on deck this morning for the unique experience of cruising into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia's lively capital, on the Guadalquivir River. Drive through the historic city center, lined with typical Sevillana houses, to see the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring—the largest in Spain—and the riverfront Tower of Gold, a remnant of Seville's Moorish fortifications. Stroll through delightful Maria Luisa Park and the impressive Plaza de España, built for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. Continue through charming Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter, where you will find a gleaming maze of white houses, flower-filled patios and orange trees lining the checkered stone streets.

Tour the legendary Alcázar, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville's Moroccan and Spanish rulers. The city's magnificent cathedral is a classic example of late Gothic architecture and is Europe's second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba, and the extraordinary main altarpiece—the largest in the world—a masterful gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco dance performance on board the ship.

Portimão, the Algarve, Portugal

Basking on Portugal's charming, sun-washed southern coast, Portimão is part of the historic province of the Algarve. Settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans, the Algarve was later ruled by the Moors, and today their heritage survives in its distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. During the 15th and 16th centuries, intrepid Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve's shores on voyages of discovery that eventually circled the globe before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

Stroll through the nearby town of Silves, a medieval center of art, poetry and learning. For picturesque views of the town, walk along the ramparts of its 12th-century Moorish castle, where the air is scented with lavender and rose emanating from the castle's garden. Visit the cathedral, a unique fusion of Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque architecture, before continuing on to the scenic port town of Lagos, once the center of trade between Moorish Portugal and Africa. Here, admire the Baroque-style Church of St. Anthony, with its stunning interior of gilded carved wood, and enjoy free time to explore this former Algarve capital.

Lisbon

Lisbon's rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.
